Bishop Theburn, in a letter from Manile. published in the Malayeia Message says :- The military cituation in Manila is somewhat complicated, and the epinions of parties are different concerning it. Americans without exception are confident that the American Gorornment will permanently hold the islands, but usarly all Europeans take a different view. The eninion of these authorities, is owing no doubt in large measure to their respective wishes. Be the cause what it may, I do not find Enrocaus very partial to the American cause in Manila. The Americans on the other hand have not only a personal interest in the cause. but the war-fever is on them, and they are naturally somewhat sanguine in their hopes.
